Weekdays are divided into two sections. Students have classes from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm. Then there are afternoon activities or evening activities. The activities in the calendar will be organized in the afternoon or in the evening. Evening activities will take the entire afternoon and evening, therefore having activities both in the afternoon and evening.

Weekend activities are based on the same system as the weekday activities. There are no English classes on the weekends.

This is Edition 1 of the calendar released September 2008. Changes will be made to this calendar once in early Spring of 2009 and one more time in May of 2009. For the latest calendar please refer to our web page at: www.sol-group.net/tap. This calendar is not a guarantee and activities will be changed due to weather conditions and other reasons beyond our control.
